

Industry Veteran Joins Energy Edge Consulting

Jeff Roberts adds his energy consulting knowledge and experience to the Energy Edge team

Houston, TX, Nov. 17, 2010 -- Energy Edge Consulting, a leading provider of energy management and advisory services, has added Jeff Roberts to its team of energy professionals. Mr. Roberts brings nearly 10 years of experience working with large commercial, industrial, and institutional end-users of electricity and natural gas, and has a proven track record of guiding clients through today's increasingly complex energy landscape.

Mr. Robert's focus will be continuing to grow Energy Edge's current client base of companies and organizations spanning a wide range of industries, including manufacturing, chemical processing, telecommunications, commercial real estate, restaurants, and government institutions.

"We're very excited that Jeff has chosen to join Energy Edge," said Brian Walker, President of Energy Edge Consulting. "Jeff's experience with commodity markets and ability to assist clients in procurement and risk management decisions matches well with Energy Edge's value proposition to our clients."

"What drew me to Energy Edge was the depth of knowledge possessed by this team," said Jeff Roberts. "As I considered different energy management firms to join, there really were none that could compete with the expertise, sophisticated tools, and infrastructure of Energy Edge."

Prior to joining Energy Edge Consulting, Jeff was Senior Vice President at Amerex Energy Services where he provided leadership to the company's retail energy services operation. While at Amerex, Jeff was instrumental in building the company's commercial and industrial client base, including overseeing the company's energy management engagements with several large multi-national corporations. He was also Director of Origination for Choice Energy Services. Over the years, Jeff has assisted numerous commercial and industrial clients in managing electricity, natural gas, and other commodities across North America.
